Busy Week Planned for L. M. Seniors

Baccalaureate Sunday and Washington Trip Are on Program

COMMENCEMENT FRIDAY

The Commencement Week activities will commence at Lower Merion on Sunday night with the Baccalaureate service at the Senior High School at 8:15. The Rev. Louis W. Pitt, rector of St. Mary's Church, Ardmore, will deliver the address.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the Senior Class, in accordance with the annual custom, will make a trip to Washington. Miss Helen B. Hubbard, dean of girls, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keever will act as chaperons.

Class Day will be celebrated Thursday morning, June 5th, at 10 A. M. On this occasion William L. Austin, President of the Lower Merion Board of Education, will make his annual address to the graduating class.

Commencement itself comes on Friday night and will be held at the Junior High School. Due to the great demand for seats admission will be by ticket only.

On Monday, June 9th, an exhibit of the work of the woodworking, dress-making and art departments will be open to parents and friends in the Senior High School.

Free Employment Service Ends With This Issue

Today's issue is the last in which "Help Wanted" and "Situation Wanted" classified advertisements will be published free of charge by this news-magazine. Hereafter the usual rates will be charged for this service.

During the last nine weeks forty-five jobs were advertised without cost to the employer while, during the last four weeks, thirty-five unemployed persons made the public acquainted with their qualifications through this free medium.

In addition to this pleasing response, a number of inquiries were "short-circuited" through the office without the necessity for publishing the ads. Full co-operation was granted by the Main Line Federation of Churches.

King's Daughters to Meet

The regular meeting of the Evangel Circle of King's Daughters will be held Wednesday, June 4, at 2 P. M. at the home of Mrs. F. H. Hewitt, 116 Essex Avenue, Narberth. All members are requested to be present.

Narberth Girl to Portray Betsy Ross in Radio Playlet

Miss Ann Polk Speed, of Narberth, who has played a number of leading roles in productions given during the past year by the Main Line Repertory Theatre, will portray "Betsy Ross" in an historical playlet which will be broadcast over Station WFAN, Philadelphia, on Saturday evening (May 31) at 10.30 o'clock (D. S. T.).

The play, which is entitled "The Making of the Flag," was written by Julian W. Gardy, former director of the Main Line Repertory Theatre, who will play the part of General George Washington. The other parts of Colonel Ross, Robert Morris and Peter Pickering will be portrayed by William Watson, Charles H. Schweitzerhof and Walter G. Emmott.

The playlet is in two scenes, both of which take place in the little Betsy Ross home at 239 Arch Street, Philadelphia, which is now a historic shrine. The first scene is during an afternoon late in May of the year 1776 when George Washington calls with his friends, Morris and Ross, to ask Mistress Ross to make the first American flag. The time of the second scene is July 5, 1776, the day after the signing of the Declaration of Independence, when Washington comes to tell Betsy Ross that her flag has been accepted by Congress and to express his deep appreciation.

Speaks on Patriotism

A brief speech on the significance of Memorial Day made up the program Tuesday of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. The speaker, Romaine C. Hessrick, a Philadelphia attorney, told of the history of the flag, and the origin of Flag Day and Memorial Day.

Parade With Many Groups in Line to Feature Memorial Day in Borough

Population of Borough Is 4663; Increase 26 Per Cent

The population of the Borough of Narberth is 4663, according to preliminary figures from Munroe H. Anders, supervisor of the 15th census for the 22d District. The last figures to be received were those for the Second District, which numbered 2091.

The population of the Borough according to the 1920 census was 3704. The net increase therefore in the ten-year period was 959, or 26 per cent. The population of the other districts, previously published, are No. 3 (South Side) 1063; No. 1, 1509. The largest increase took place in the Second District.

'Spectator' Spends a Day at the Polls

Comments on Things Seen and Heard at Last Week's Election.

It has been many a year since Joe Grundy has missed lining up with the rest of the workers at his polling place in Bristol, and this past election, when he was one of the candidates for Senate, was no exception to his long-standing rule. There he was bright and early in the morning, the handbook always in evidence, greeting and checking the voters as they came to take their part in our great American scheme of things.

In this town Fletcher Stites always seems to get a great kick out of the same procedure, and there is no question that an observer who is alert for actual facts can hardly do better than spend a day as "watcher," coming in direct contact with the men and women whose suffrage control political destinies.

To the amateur it also affords a kind of diversion and instruction not available in any other way, as such a one is likely to advance his cause with exceeding earnestness, and because of that he is apt to be keener than the old-timer in drawing accurate conclusions from the numerous impressions which are made on him as he stands around the whole day long.

Three days with temperatures of 80 or above and four in the forties are noted in the report of Main Line Weather Observer Charles Decker, of Narberth, for the week ending May 26. Monday was eleven degrees under the normal for that date. An inch and one-tenth of rain fell during the week.

A parade led by a twenty-piece band with the American Legion and Auxiliary, gold star mothers, members of Council and other Borough officials, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Fire Company, and children from the Borough Schools and St. Margaret's School in line together with exercises at the monument in front of the Community Building will feature Narberth's observance of Memorial Day.

Tom Kerrigan will act as Marshal of the parade whose route had not been definitely determined at the time this paper went to press. If arrangements can be made it will include flag raising ceremonies at the Narberth School.

At the Community Building a presentation of medals will take place. The Legion will award medals to the boy with the highest standing from both the Narberth School and St. Margaret's School. The Legion Auxiliary also will make a similar presentation to the two girls with the highest standings. Frank A. Schrepfer will make the presentation.

The speaker for the exercises following the parade had not been decided upon up to press time. The program will conclude in time for all participating to attend the morning baseball game on the playground.

Plans Strawberry Festival

The annual Strawberry Festival of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, of Narberth, will be held in the social room of the church, Narberth and Woodbine Avenues, on Thursday, June 5, from 6 to 9 P. M. Strawberries, ice cream and home-made cake will be on sale.

W. F. M. S. Meets Monday

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will meet at 2:30 P. M. Monday in the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. William C. Griffiths will be hostess and Mrs. Samuel MacAdams will be program leader. The mite box will be open in charge of Mrs. Minnie Mopes and the mystery box in charge of Mrs. A. J. Bawden. A large attendance is desired.

Library Closed Friday

The Narberth Library will be closed all day Friday, Memorial Day.

List Ball Games Here

Narberth's baseball team plays two games on Memorial Day, both of them at the community playground: St. Philips at 10.15 A. M., following the American Legion's flag raising; and Brookline—a Main Line League game—at 3.15 P. M.

This Saturday Paoli, another member of the league, will play at Narberth at 3.15 P. M. Next Wednesday at 6.15 P. M. will see the start of Narberth's twilight games this season. The visiting team will be Hildale.

Narberth Bows to Media in Debut

New Main Line League Team
Topples Champions on Own Field, 9-5.

BURNS BATS THOUSAND

The Media mace-pile sounded vibrant concussions against Narberth's ace, Howard Graham, last Saturday, sweeping aside the 1929 champions on the Media grounds in a rampant drum-fire of base hits to rout the borough forces by the count of 9-5.

Six hits in the first two frames netted Narberth four runs, but the Media nine came back like men possessed in the subsequent canto with a sustained barrage of blows to quell the menacing spurt of the Davismen. They continued to peek at Graham for thirteen hits and victory, their second straight of the infant season.

The bright spot of the game for Narberth was Mickey Burns' splendid services at the pentagon with a 1,000 batting mark. Mickey's brilliant record was attained by his long single in the first, when he started the rally that netted the club four runs, his double over the fence in right in the following inning, a long double in the fourth and another one-base ply in the eighth. A walk interspersed with his cluster of safeties credited him with four hits out of four official times at bat.

However, even this feat was emulated by the hard-hitting C. Mooney, crack second baseman of the Media Club, when he splashed three substantial singles and a sacrifice for a 1,000 score. Thomas' commendable fielding in centre-field, which brought forth acclamation from the entire crowd of alien rooters, was a strong feature of the contest. On two conspicuous occasions he dashed out of his own territory to sphere a couple of whizzing rockets off the Media wood-pile to thwart the ambition of Media's bid for a one-sided win.

Adamant and immaculate, the tacit Walch, formerly of the Darby High School mound staff, kept his throws well scattered, occasionally displaying fine generalship on the peak by extricating himself from embarrassing positions when Narberth threatened with loaded bases.

Graham went to the mound at the start and resembled the Graham of old when he felled the first three men up in order. Headed by the promising Burns, regular lead-off man for the champions, Narberth sent its line-up into a complete round of batting for three runs, and placed a temporary clamp on the Media cheering squad. A lone tally in the following session augmented the Narberth lead to four runs. But in the foreign half of the same inning Media slammed at Graham with cyclic regularity for five hits and four runs. Coining one run in the third and fourth, the rivals forged to the front with a lead which was never again threatened.

Burns singled and Curwin doubled to centre-field. Humphreys fell on strikes and Fleck forced Burns off third. Martin hit lively for two bases, Curwin and Fleck crossing. Rubican rammed a robust swat into right-field to score Martin. Kneibler and Thomas Notes on the tennis tournaments and inter-club matches; Hedgerow returning to Wayne.

Saturday was a day of upsets on the tennis courts. In the finals of the Philadelphia District Claycourt Championship at the Cynwyd Club, Samuel Gilpin of the Merion Cricket Club reversed last year's verdict and defeated Harold MacGuffin of Germantown in straight sets. Over at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club Miss Anne Page, champion of the Women's Inter-Club League, was dethroned by her teammate, Mrs. C. C. Madeira, of the Merion Cricket Club.

Gilpin playing at top speed from the start had little trouble capturing the first set 6-2. MacGuffin appeared indifferent, Gilpin making several placements. The second set saw the best tennis of the match, MacGuffin stroking with machinelike regularity had Gilpin on the run but the Merion player's court covering ability pulled him through at 6-4. The third set was a walkaway with MacGuffin able to take only one game.

At Huntingdon Valley Mrs. Madeira's steadiness was the deciding factor. The first set was closely contested, four of games going to deuce. After the score was tied at 3 all in the second set, Mrs. Madeira swept through to capture the next three and the match, 6-4, 6-3.

The finals of the doubles in the Philadelphia District Tourney at Cynwyd on Sunday provided only mediocre tennis for the gallery. After a close first set Brammal and Olhausen had little difficulty with their opponents, MacGuffin and Colburn, taking the match 7-5, 6-0, 6-2. This match seemed to prove the theory that good individual players do not necessarily make a good doubles team. MacGuffin, probably the best singles player on the court, while making many good shots, piled up errors in smashes that proved costly. Colburn also is a much better performer in singles than doubles. Brammal's "gets" and steadiness were outstanding in the match while Olhausen contributed several beautiful drives for placements and his game generally was of a high standard.

Cynwyd A team downed Germantown 5 matches to 4 at Cynwyd on Sunday but the result had no effect on the final standing of the Middle States League. Idle Hour clinched the Division A title with a record of 25 matches won to 11 lost. Cynwyd, champion for the past three years, was runner up with 18 won and 17 lost. Hunter Lott, young Lower Merion High sophomore, made his debut on the Cynwyd A team. He lost his match in singles but paired with Gordon Straub, won in doubles. The summaries:

Ralph Dix, Cynwyd, defeated Roy Coffin, Germantown, 6-3, 6-3.

Herman Dornheim, Germantown, defeated Gordon Straub, Cynwyd, 6-4, 6-3.

Johnny Haynes, Cynwyd, defeated Neil Sullivan, Germantown, 3-6, 8-6, 6-2.

Charles Orr, Cynwyd, defeated Watson Knight, Germantown, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

Harold Custer, Cynwyd, defeated A. L. Reed, Germantown, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Joe Morgan, Germantown, defeated Hunter Lott, Cynwyd, 6-8, 9-7, 6-4.

Knight and Dornheim, Germantown, defeated Haynes and Orr, Cynwyd, 6-4, 2-6, 6-1.

Coffin and Sullivan, Germantown, defeated Dix and Custer, Cynwyd, 6-2, 8-6.

Straub and Lott, Cynwyd, defeated MacGuffin and Reed, Germantown, 6-1, 6-2.

The Anthony Wayne Theatre is planning an unusual program during its Anniversary Week, June 2 to June 7, when it will present, on Monday and Tuesday night at 9 o'clock, members of the Hedgerow Theatre of Rose Valley in a one-act play by Edna St. Vincent Millay, "Aria Da Capo." This feature will also serve to introduce the Hedgerow company, who will be seen in a full length play every Monday night at the Anthony Wayne, beginning June 9th. Their first production of the Main Line series will be Eugene O'Neill's "The Emperor Jones," preceded by "The No 'Count Boy," a one-act play by Paul Green.

A Healthy Increase

Some of the wisecracks about town may be slightly surprised by the final population figures of the Borough for the 15th census. Many wild guesses have been flying about that Narberth now numbered in the neighborhood of seven or eight thousand souls.

An increase, however, of 26 per cent in the ten-year period indicates a healthy growth and is in view of the extent that the Borough is built up, quite high.

About the only way that Narberth can now expand is through an increase in apartment houses. In fact there have been some who predict that within ten or twenty years multiple dwellings will replace the great majority of the individual homes.

One of the chief charms of such a suburban community as ours is the lawns, gardens, trees, hedges and it is to be hoped that any developments that the future may bring will not do away with these things.

Good Ball in Prospect

First-class baseball is in store for fans of Narberth and vicinity, judging from a partial list of bookings released by Business Manager Harry Hollar this week.

Such teams as Hildale, Penn A. C., West Phillies, Baltimore Black Sox, etc., will be seen in action on the Narberth field. And speaking of baseball fields, one would have to look sharp to find a better appointed and kept diamond and athletic field than that on the Community Playground. The new bleachers, drinking fountains, fences add much to the comfort and safety of both fans and players.

Narberth is going to have a good team this year. A majority of last year's champion aggregation is back in uniform, and, with the loyal support of fans of these parts, they will do their share towards providing a high type of baseball.

Watch for the new uniforms in Memorial Day's double-header. They are the result of the generosity of several citizens following the annual banquet last year, and if the Narberth boys play as well as they look they will sure be balls of fire.

The "Wets" in a Quandary

With Brown and Pinchot leaders still accusing each other of "stealing the nomination," local political leaders most everywhere have shut up tight as the proverbial clam on political matters pertaining to the governorship. Meanwhile Gifford Pinchot also is saying nothing but is wearing a broad smile.

Mr. Pinchot is not worried about the charges of the Brown folk, for in nearly every case where a recount has been made he has gained in the vote. And he is in a strategic position so far as the threatening "Wets" are concerned. The anti-prohibitionists desire his defeat above everything else but they don't know just how to go about it despite the fact that Pennsylvania is "wet" rather than "dry."

But in making a fight against Mr. Pinchot the "Wets" immediately run into these snags:

A full State and County ticket immediately removes any chance of obtaining support from local leaders. A complete State ticket means running afoul of James J. Davis' popularity, an excellent kite, incidentally, for Mr. Pinchot to tie to. Between them, the senatorial and gubernatorial candidates have the labor vote sewed up as never before, and Labor is the biggest bloc the "Wets" have to bank on.

But probably the worst thing that the "Wets" fear could happen would be for Mr. Pinchot to score such a large "dry" victory over them that he would be in the front rank as a Prohibition candidate for President in 1932, say against Dwight W. Morrow as a "Wet." Of course that's just a possibility. President Hoover may desire a second term and again the Democrats are about due to get into office or to get out of business.

Mr. Thomas Edison has announced that he is very fond of babies. Mr. Edison, by the way, is deaf.

A professor says that all bridge fiends have an inferiority complex. He probably never sat in the same game with his wife.

JESS—IN FUN

A Lower for Tonight!

Practically all the railroads do it. There is no excuse for it either. It is not only inconvenient, discouraging and unfair to the would-be patron; but it is also of dubious economic consequence to the railroad itself. I refer, of course, to the modern custom of announcing reservations as all sold out when there is in reality a goodly supply of lowers and drawing-rooms as yet unreserved. "A lower on the Mad Hatter for tonight? Ha! Ha! Why, fella, that train was all sold out before noon yesterday. If you get on board, the conductor might be able to find you an upper. A lower for tonight, ha! ha!"

"But I must get to Chicago. H. N. said there'd be no difficulty if I—"

"Why didn't you mention Mister Smith before, sir? I beg your pardon, sir.—Bob, get me a lower on the Mad Hatter for tonight. On the right side, and in the middle of the car—no trouble at all, sir."

"But you said the train was all sold?"

"Oh, we always save a few good lowers for emergencies like this, sir. No, I couldn't think of taking a tip, sir. Well, if you insist, sir."

It is indeed strange what a few well-placed initials will accomplish in an emergency. I make a regular practice of noting down the initials of the Passenger Traffic Manager of every railroad upon which I travel. That's how I get my reservations. Other people have equally efficient methods. Some have none at all. They are severely incommoded. A twenty-dollar-a-week clerk of the Amalgamated Oyster and Clam Corporation or of the United Manures Company, taking a week's vacation, can flash a business card showing his connection with such an important shipper and make a late capture of a good lower. But a doctor or a lawyer with a five thousand a month income, and on an important business trip, finds arguments of no avail, and rides in a coach or stays at home.

Of course, once in a very long while the train is really sold out. And the poor ticket agent gets it in the neck. Sometimes he is equal to the occasion, as was the case when the agent of the Leery Railroad questioned me closely concerning my intimacy with the president of his company. I found that my journey could be postponed. But sometimes it is not so easy for the agent to get out of his difficulty. The other day the president of an important shipping company was told the train was sold out. He was well acquainted with the customary "all sold" gag, and felt that his name had been scratched off the preferred list. He was being insulted. The Squeedunk and Southern would get all the future business of the Goofville Gum Works. The ticket agent was in a quandary. He could not manufacture a ticket, neither could he add another car to the Spirit of St. Hooley. He did the next best thing. He sold the great gum executive a reservation that had already been sold. President Piltenger strode away full of that pride which arises only from such a signal victory over a ticket agent. A few moments later the Rev. Adison Adrian Phipps, L. L. D., D. D. (Oxon.) Litt. D. (Cantab.), E. T. C., called for the berth which had been reserved by his social secretary two weeks previously. "No, sir. Some mistake, sir. Lower nine in car forty-two was reserved by P. D. Q. Piltenger three weeks ago. You can get nothing else now, sir. Perhaps your secretary made the reservation with the See and Go Line."

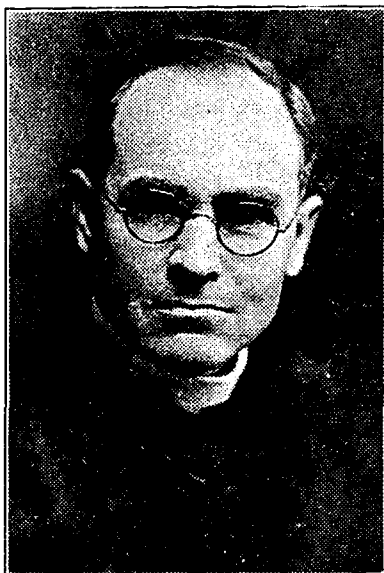

Altogether, it is very demoralizing. It gives rise to braggarts, who prate of their last-minute captures of reservations on the Dead Arrow and the Unlimited. It encourages untruthfulness. It encourages interurban bus transportation (have YOU ever been crowded off the road?). Berth control should be prohibited by law.

A Gold Star Mother

Our heart goes out in sympathy
For one who has lost a boy,
Just in his early manhood,
A mother's pride and joy.

The mother hoped her son would live
For many, many years.
But when the war clouds gathered
Her heart was sick with fears.

She knew that he must leave her
To obey her country's call;
She felt that she was giving
Herself, her life, her all.

And when he had to leave her
Her heart was very sore.
The sacrifice she had to make
To help the cruel war.

She found how much she loved him
As she never knew before;
She felt that she could never live
If she should lose her boy.

And when the sad news reached her,
Who can describe her pain;
No more would she look on the face
Of her dear boy again.

"The Great World's War" is over,
And we hope there'll be no more;
But the precious lives thus taken
It never can restore.

And as we think of distant graves—
Graves of the many slain,
We trust that their great sacrifice
Has not been made in vain.

We pray the Lord to comfort
All who have been bereaved,
And soothe the aching, longing hearts
Of mothers who still grieve.
—MARGARET L. GRIFFITH.

Barrymore in War Film
Scheduled at Narberth

Three songs dear to the heart of all Irishmen — "Kathleen Mavourneen," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," and "Rich and Rare Were the Gems She Wore"—are sung by Donald Novis, lyric tenor, in "Irish Fantasy," a one-reel featurette playing at the Narberth Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Novis, who made a name for himself through his singing in "Bulldog Drummond," is winner of the Atwater Kent national contest for singers under 25 years of age.

"Irish Fantasy" portrays the emotions of an entire race as it struggles musically for expression. It is an all-music and singing visualization produced by Dr. Hugo Riesenfeld, under whose direction a 70-piece symphony orchestra furnishes incidental music from "The Minstrel Boy," "The Bard of Ireland," and "My Lady's Eyes."

One of a series of similar featurettes (inaugurated at the Narberth Theatre this week with "The Overture of 1812"), it accompanies the feature for next Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday, the thrilling "General Crack," John Barrymore's first all-talking picture.

The feature this Friday and Saturday is "Let's Go Places," a comedy. Next Thursday's attraction is "The Lady Lies," with Walter Huston and Claudette Colbert. Coming the end of next week are George Sidney and Charles Murray in "The Cohens and Kellys in Scotland."

"Rogue Song," "Grischa" and "Sarah and Son,"
Coming to the Egyptian

"Shivering Shakespeare," an "Our Gang" comedy, and "The Lost Zeppelin," a thrilling "talkie" of Antarctic explorations, will be shown at the Egyptian Theatre, Cynwyd, at the children's party this Saturday afternoon, as well as at the regular Friday and Saturday evening performances.

"The Rogue Song," much praised for its music, plot, romance and fun, will be the Egyptian's feature next Monday and Tuesday. Lawrence Tibbett, Metropolitan operatic baritone, plays and sings the leading role—an unusually pleasing role—and Laurel and Hardy, comedy stars, are conspicuous in the cast of this, their first full-length picture.

"The Case of Sergeant Grischa," based on the much-discussed war novel by Arnold Zweig, is scheduled for next Wednesday and Thursday. Stellar roles are played by Chester Morris and Betty Compson. Accompanying the feature is "The Fighting Parson," a Harry Langdon talking comedy.

Coming the end of next week is Ruth Chatterton's greatest success, the dramatic "Sarah and Son."

National Honor Society

Instituted at Lower Merion

On Thursday morning, May 29, at 8:30 o'clock the Initiation Ceremony for the members of the Lower Merion Chapter of the National Honor Society was held. Professor Rufus Jones of Haverford College was the speaker.

Election to the Society was determined by each pupil's activity, as shown in the School, in character, scholarship, service and leadership. Those eligible for membership were rated in these four fields by faculty members and pupils.

The following sixteen members of the Senior Class of the Lower Merion

Senior High School were elected: Florence May Alburger, Alfred Eugene Bonniwell, Richard Deering Case, Ruth Lee Cook, Frank Crafft, Emma Kirkbride Crossdale, Henrietta Marie Deubler, George A. Hansell, Jr., Arthur Sidney Hicks, Frank J. Hoder, Anne Elizabeth Jones, Jonathan Randolph Keis, Grace Marie Mahoney, David Longston McVicker, Alice Virginia Monks, and L. Alvina Young.

There were nine members from the Junior Class chosen: Susan Abernathy, James Bailey, Robert Blair, Betty Hartley, John Pennypacker, Helen Louise Thomas, James Turner, Joyce Trenholme and Rose Weigel. The Honor Society emblems, gold pins and charms, were given by Mrs. H. Wilson Moorhouse this year to the initial members of the Lower Merion Chapter.

Road Work Here Well Under Way

Work Being Pushed by Highway Department on Several Jobs.

UPLAND TERRACE IRKED

Resurfacing of several Lower Merion roads is being undertaken by the township highway department, and considerable activity is contemplated for the near future, according to Highway Engineer W. E. Rosengarten at the township building in Ardmore.

One of the jobs—Upland Terrace, Bala—has had residents of the street up in the air. Their petition of about four years ago was acted upon recently when resurfacing between Maple and Bryn Mawr Avenues was ordered. From its old crooked width of from 20 to 22 feet the street has been widened and straightened to 24 feet. The street, paved thirty-five years ago, will have a concrete base and asphaltic concrete top.

Residents objected when they saw their sidewalks torn up, and electric light poles moved nearer their homes. Bala Commissioner George Brown hopes to effect an agreement with the Philadelphia Electric Company for it to erect neat, new, comparatively thin iron posts in place of the larger wooden ones.

Meanwhile, improvements are being effected, while the street is torn up. Stone curbs are being set, and a retaining wall on the south side of the street. The water company has replaced its two and one-half-inch main with a four-inch one, as an added fire safeguard. A fire hydrant is to be installed at the corner of Maple Avenue and Upland Terrace. And the gas main has been lowered and refitted with new connections.

Conshohocken State Road is being resurfaced and widened, from Montgomery Pike at the Cynwyd Station, to Amherst Road—beyond Levering Mill Road, Cynwyd. Grading is practically completed, and the thirty-foot width is ready for pouring in concrete.

Grading is nearly completed on Conshohocken State Road north of Gladwyne, and it is expected that curbs and gutters will be laid this week. A bad turn at Murray's Road is being eliminated, about three-quarters mile above Gladwyne.

Work will soon start on Black Rock Road, Ardmore Road in Gladwyne, and Old Gulph Road's continuation of Mill Creek Road, from Conshohocken State Road to Montgomery Avenue. Bridge work is included in this job.

Grays lane from Mill Creek Road to the top of the hill for a quarter-mile stretch has been graded and curbed, and paving is to start shortly. Included in the work is construction of a new bridge across Mill Creek.

Paving of Haverford Road between Argyle Road and County Line has just been completed.

The State Highway Department, aided financially by Montgomery County and Lower Merion Township, is working on Haverford and Argyle Roads, between Manoa and Wynnewood Roads, and is expected to finish paving in the next few weeks.

Final Meeting of Forum Scheduled For Thursday

The thirteenth and final meeting of the Forum for the present season will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Wood, 237 Forrest Avenue, next Thursday evening, June 5, and as this will be a special meeting in several respects it will begin at 6:30 P. M., at which time the members of the group will for the first time devote themselves to sociability and refreshments. About 8 o'clock the regular program of lecture and discussion will begin. The subject will be a general review and summary of the Old Testament by the leader, the Rev. Robert E. Keighton, in which he will point out especially the spiritual significance of the Old Testament writings and their revelation of the broadening ethical and religious conceptions of the Hebrew people as their history and experiences unfolded.

The twelfth meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Staples, of 124 Woodside Avenue, on the evening of the 15th, was well attended in spite of unfavorable weather. Jeremiah was the subject of consideration and discussion that night. It is the desire of the Forum group to resume meetings next autumn, but the general subject for the next series has not yet been decided. These meetings are always open to all who wish to attend. The Forum has no formal membership list nor eligibility requirements.

The poll is not far on its way when you learn, subject to the exceptions of all general rules, that there are two definite classes of women voters, those who appear to know all about it and those who, in ingenious fashion, make it plain that they know utterly nothing, and it's not at all difficult to determine the respective species. Comes the lady who is impressed she knows it all, rather stern-faced, brief in her speech and quite inclined to sharply rebuke the worker who is so bold as to submit his "literature." She makes it evident that she is on a very serious enterprise, has no time nor tilt for badinage, and she sweeps her way up the alley with a beautiful scorn of all those who would dare to proffer suggestions.

As a rule, she travels alone, and as she comes out of the polls, her duty well done, her visage proclaims that she is well aware of the fact that she has left the watchers cold, and inevitably conversation stills as she wends her homeward way.

The dumb dears, however, are of an altogether different mold. They invariably come along with friend husband or, lacking that luggage, they arrive with a neighbor who shares their own confused mental posture. They tell you exactly what they want to do, eagerly implore your superior masculine intelligence to properly instruct them, and then you proudly march them up the walk to make sure that they are delivered at destination with a profoundly tutored state of mind. When they come out they never fail to beam, whilst you thank them, and they thank you, and directions will be given you to look out for the "lady who lives in our street, as she will be down soon, and she simply doesn't know a thing about it."

When evening comes you will be probably ready to believe (and you may have believed it all along) that women are more interesting, possibly more attractive as women, when they don't pretend to know so very much about politics after all.

The neighborhood scraps add to the zest of the occasion. Fred Walzer looms around the corner to size up the situation at the fire house. He sees Charlie Noel and immediately they are at it. It's not always easy to know what they are talking about, but in one way or another it seems to be a case of too much Johnson. At least, Fred appears to think so and it is evident that Charlie wishes he would take it easier. There is no interruption of friendship and then Fred tells us how he is proceeding with his personal slate at Cook's place. He uses some bad words from time to time, a fact about which his wife should be informed, and then with another crack at Charlie he whisks himself away, to return in an hour or so to resume as before and also ad lib.

At midnight both Fred and Charlie declared themselves as perfectly pleased with the results, and demonstrated their respective victories in a manner which was altogether inexplicable to a tyro.

During the day we are visited by Mr. Sloan, the candidate for the Legislature. He is a quiet-spoken young man, following a time-honored custom of getting out among the proletariat, but he has no knack of getting a fuss made about him, and he soon disappears.

Meanwhile, word comes that Merion Tribune House is polling a big wet vote and then the guesses start again as to how many Bohlen and Phillips will get throughout the State and if they can really throw the nomination to Pinchot. Apparently they could.

On the south side Barrister Herbert Barton, quite uninformed, was discovered trying to extract a wet vote out of Dr. Chalfant. The beholders stuck their fingers in their ears as they awaited an explosion which did not come. Herbert later said he felt he could make the grade if he had more time. He no doubt forgot that there is no such thing as time in eternity.

Defective registrations caused a lot of trouble and serious note ought to be made of it. We are going to give a few facts to the editor and suggest he do something. Deny a man or woman the right to vote and you have a bit of a problem on your hands. One disappointed lady let us know how times have changed by using the most impressive kind of language you ever did hear. We made a note of several of the choice ones to pass along to Fred. Another pretty young one cried, and real tears at that. She said she was so anxious to vote wet. We almost cried too when we learned what we had lost. One man arrived at Elm Hall and explained he had only lived in the district several weeks, but had resided in Narberth all his voting life. He was sent to Cook's, his previous district and where his name was still registered. His erstwhile neighbor, one of the officials, saw him and told the judge. He lost his vote and a certain election official has lost a friend.

Probably a hundred men and women were not permitted to vote because their names were not on the lists. In many other cases no party affiliation was indicated and the complaints were loud on that score as a consequence.

At Cook's a dozen or so lost out because they arrived too late. The complicated vote at that station kept the clerks on the job until 5 o'clock Wednesday morning. Fred and Charlie didn't go to bed at all. Personally, we gave no idea as to where you can get good beer.

Perhaps the trophy for the prize antic of the day ought to go to the man at Cook's who took the "wet" sample ballot, threw it on the sidewalk, and then jumped on it a couple of times, after which (pardon, please) he spit on it with great vehemence. It would appear he was no friend of the wet cause, although, of course, we could be wrong.

THE SPECTATOR.

Parks Blanks Chestnut Hill For Juniors

The masterful pitching of Keith Parks won an easy victory, 6-0, for the Narberth Juniors team over Chestnut Hill Juniors last Saturday at the Narberth Playground. The visitors were helpless throughout the game against the curves of the Lower Merion star, who allowed but two hits and fanned sixteen of the visiting batsmen. N. Maher also hurled well for the visitors but was handicapped by the faulty fielding behind him. The feature of the game was a flashy bit of fielding by McKelvey and J. Torchiana, which robbed Myers of a hit.

Every Tuesday and Thursday evenings the Juniors battle first-class teams at the playground. The Juniors wish to thank the fans for their loyal support at the Saturday game and would be pleased to see such a turnout at their next.

KONATE!

One Treatment Ends Moth Damage for Three Years—and You Receive an Insurance Policy to Guarantee it!

Chemists at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research, University of Pittsburgh, spent years in the development of a moth-proofing solution that would be so sure, so infallible that it could be guaranteed!

Had those chemists failed, you would never have heard of the result of their research. But they succeeded and the result of their efforts is KONATE!

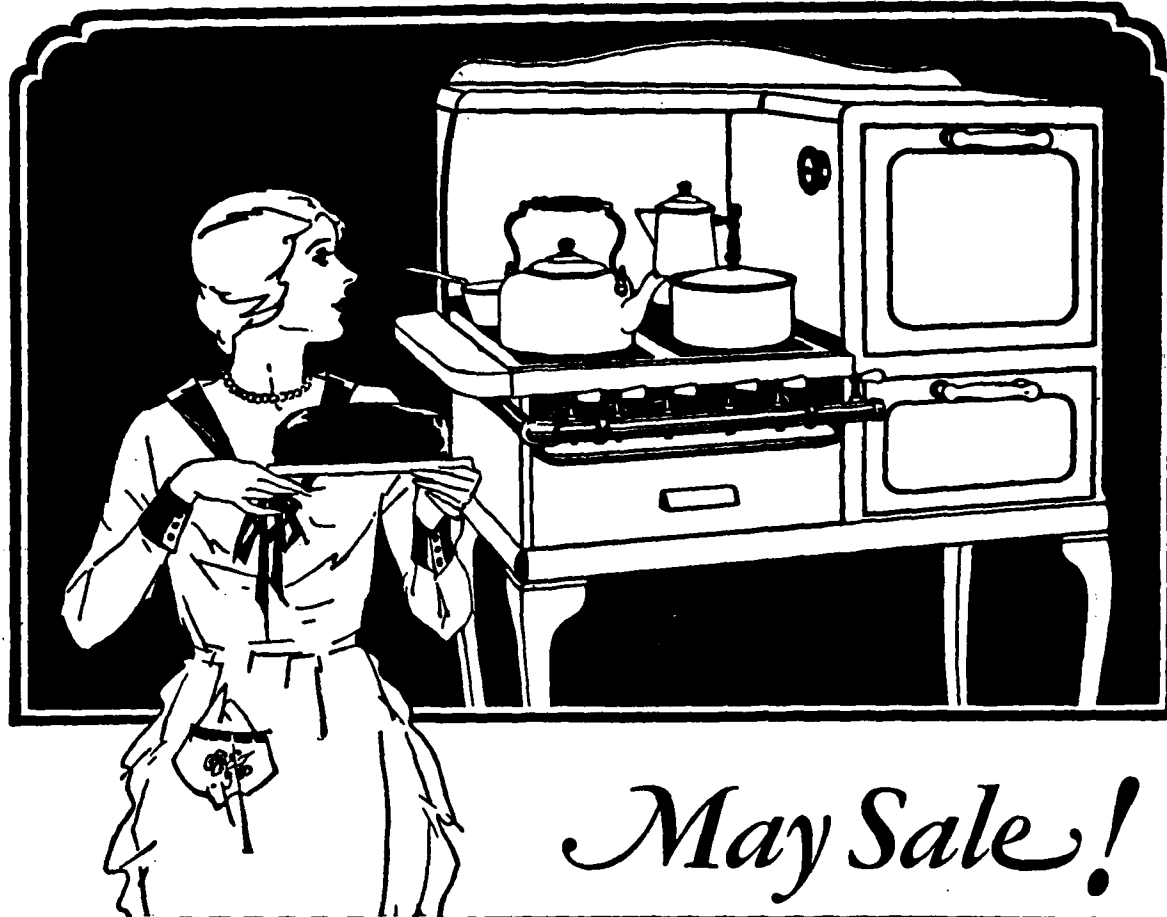

We are the sole Philadelphia Service Agents for KONATE. And we are now equipped to make your valuable rugs, drapes, furs, furniture and clothing absolutely immune to moth damage for a period of at least three years. We'll go a step farther. We'll guarantee that immunity. Then we'll go a step farther than that! We'll give you an insurance policy from Lloyd's Casualty Company.

Find out about KONATE. Get the facts by telephoning now to Evergreen 1200 or Michigan 9100. Let us tell you how it is done, where it is done, who has had it done, what it costs and why you should have it done. You aren't obligated by asking for the facts about KONATE or about any other of our complete services, such as storing, moving, shipping or packing.

Main Line Gardens to Be Opened to Public

The Neighborhood League of Wayne has secured the consent of eight owners of some of the most beautiful properties on the Main Line for exhibition to the public on Saturday, June 7th, from 3 until 7 o'clock in the afternoon. A small charge per person will secure admission to all of these gardens.

The Neighborhood League has been in existence for seventeen years and has done a splendid work in Wayne and the region lying about Rosemont, Villanova, St. Davids, Ithan, Wayne, Strafford and Devon.

It supports nursing service for all—either free or paid. Social Service workers care for those in need or trouble. It is incorporated under the State Laws and Affiliated with the Family Welfare Association of America.

The Garden Patronesses are: Mrs. Benjamin Chew, Radnor; Mrs. Clarence H. Geist, Radnor; Mrs. J. Franklin McFadden, Radnor; Mrs. Louis Neilson, St. Davids; Mrs. Eugene S. Newbold, St. Davids; Mrs. S. von A. Cabeen, Devon; Mrs. Henry S. Jeanes, Devon; and Mrs. Arthur V. Morton, Devon.

New Library Activity

The Narberth Library has begun a new activity. For some time members of the former volunteer staff have expressed a sense of loss in the absence of the meetings to review new books and urge their renewal for the benefit of anyone interested. The tentative meeting called for May 16 drew a group of fifteen. Mr. Robert Fellows Wood spoke informally on Pulitzer Prizes and especially on their founder, the late Joseph Pulitzer.

The group plans to meet in the library at 10 A. M. on the first and third of each month during the summer. Hence the next day will be June 6. The subject will be John Masefield, newly-appointed Poet Laureate. There will also be announcements of immediately forthcoming books and an informal discussion of recent ones. In fact, it is all most informal. There is no organization and no dues. All interested persons are welcome June 6 at 10 A. M. in the library.

Says Paper Is Wet

To the Editor:

As your paper is so decidedly "wet", I do not care to renew my subscription. Kindly discontinue at time of expiration.

SUSAN GREBLE BAKER.

Our Town is not wet. Its columns are open, however, to letters and advertising from any individual or group with a live topic to discuss. That is the clear duty of any paper of general circulation.

During the recent political campaign, the Wets took the reins and used a great deal of space. The copy was interesting and constructive. Had it been otherwise it would have been refused.

Our Town is dedicated to the schools, churches and clubs. No publicity for the dries has ever been refused or curtailed, to which fact any local prohibitionist can testify. We will at all times stand ready to act as a local publicity medium for the Dries. Let's be fair.

—THE EDITOR.

"Time Out"

By Tommy Macklin.

Keith Parks pitched a beautiful game against Upper Darby Tuesday afternoon as the invaders from the neighboring township lucked out a victory over Coach Cocklin's good and bad team at Lower Merion. Keith got himself into three or four holes during the pastime, and a couple of passes that he issued turned into important runs. The Savage men won, 7 to 6, and to say they were lucky is putting it just about right.

Parks, native of Narberth, struck out fourteen of Upper Darby's prize hitters during the nine innings and held them to eight hits. His teammates, meanwhile, batted out eleven hits, but could not break out with anything when the pinch came. Scavenger Rose, another hometown boy, crashed in with a long two-bagger in the ninth inning to score Thomas and put himself into position to score the tying run, but the necessary hit did not appear.

both garnered passes and Graham blanked. Four hits, three runs, no errors.

Burns also started the second frame with a double over the right-field fence, which accordingly to the regulations of the park only permits two bases. Curwin slapped his second consecutive hit of the game by singling to centre to send in Mickey. Humphreys hit into a double play, Baldwin to C. Mooney to Worrall. Fleck popped to Agatone.

Both teams scored their last in the sixth, Narberth sending one man over the disc while Media went two better, scoring three runs from two hits. Walch held the champions to one hit during the last three periods, and the game came to an abrupt end in the ninth when rain began to fall just as Rubican, last man up, lofted to third for the third out.

A PLEASANT MOTOR TRIP

Prepared by the
KEYSTONE AUTOMOBILE CLUB

Nowhere in the eastern section of the United States will motorists find a more alluring scenic picture than the beautiful Eastern Shore region presents in springtime. For this reason motorists seeking a pleasant week-end outing will take exceptional interest in a tour through this section as planned by the Keystone Automobile Club.

"Amid well-kept farm and orchard lands ablaze with blossoming fruit trees the journey leads to attractive resorts and into a land teeming with historic interest," says Joseph Murphy, manager of the Ardmore branch of the club.

"A week-end spent in this delightful section of Maryland will be an outing that motorists will long remember. The return trip may be made over excellent highways of Delaware, where additional attractive countryside is found."

From Ardmore the tour leads through Llanerch and Clifton Heights to Ridley Park, where national route 13 is reached and followed into Chester. A straight run through Chester and Marcus Hook leads across the State line and into Delaware. Through Claymont and Bellvue Wilmington is reached. From Wilmington the journey leads south over the famous duPont Highway marked as national route 13 to State road, where the tourists turn into national route 40, which is followed to Elkton.

In the heart of this attractive little town a left turn leads over an iron bridge across the Elk River and into national route 213. Continuing through Chesapeake City, the Bohemia River country, Cecilton, Galena and into quaint old Chestertown, the motorists pass through historic regions harking back to the early days of our nation's birth.

In Chestertown is Washington College, founded in 1782 and named after the first President. Crossing the Chester River and rolling through Church Hill and Centerville, the tourists reach Wye Mills. Here stands the Great Wye oak, said to be more than 400 years old. In the next town of Easton a right turn leads to an attractive side trip through Kirkham, Newcomb to Royal Oak, in one of the finest sections of the Chesapeake shore. The first day's journey can be halted in any nearby section where excellent accommodations will be found.

Returning to Preston, over State route 17, the tour continues northward over State route 16 to Denton, where the orchard country is in its most attractive garb at this season. A few miles north of Denton the highway leads through Burrville and across the State boundary into Delaware. At Harrington the road intersects with national route 13 and the tourists are back again on the duPont Highway. Canterbury, Woodside and Camden, all historic spots, are passed on the way to Dover, the State capital.

Among the most interesting sights here are the capitol buildings modeled after the design of Independence Hall in Philadelphia. Many buildings dating back to the Colonial era still stand in this quaint old town. Through Smyrna to Odessa, where stands the famous Drawyers Church, the travelers pass straight through to Wilmington, where the tour can be finished over the same route on which it began.
